

When Love Is God

- Storge, Phileo and Eros are natural loves common to all. They are the precursors for learning the fourth love, Agape, which is God's love.

When Love Is God

- The natural loves are subject to the effects of the Fall, meaning that they contain both positive and negative attributes.

When Love Is God

- The natural loves aid us in learning Agape. The image of God in us (reason, conscience, will, emotions) is the template on which this takes place.

When Love Is God

- The Holy Spirit controls this sanctification process, by creating the image of Christ (Romans 8:29) in us on the template of the image of God and the natural loves.

When Love Is God

- Under the Holy Spirit's rulership, our responsibility in this process is: 1) a broken will, 2) obedience to the commandments and 3) a Christian worldview (1 Tim 1:5).

When Love Is God

- Without the above the natural loves become gods and when human love becomes god, it quickly becomes a demon.

When Love Is God

- One way to understand what is happening in our country is that we are in a religious war over who gets to define love.

When Love Is God

- Storge, Phileo and Eros are natural loves common to all. They are the precursors for learning the fourth love, Agape, which is God's love.
- The natural loves are subject to the effects of the Fall, meaning that they contain both positive and negative attributes.
- The natural loves aid us in learning Agape. The image of God in us (reason, conscience, will, emotions) is the template on which this takes place.
- The Holy Spirit controls this sanctification process, by creating the image of Christ (Romans 8:29) in us on the template of the image of God and the natural loves.
- Under the Holy Spirit's rulership, our responsibility in this process is: 1) a broken will, 2) obedience to the commandments and 3) a Christian worldview (1 Tim 1:5).
- Without the above the natural loves become gods and when human love becomes god, it quickly becomes a demon.
- One way to understand what is happening in our country is that we are in a religious war over who gets to define love.